

Historical and Cultural Family Tour of Europe

Have you ever wanted to hit the open road in a new pickup truck and visit many places on your travel bucket list?

Do you longingly watch people on Instagram stories doing road trips around Europe and think “I want to do that”?

Then come with us on a two-month European road trip as we discover new countries and cultures with our young son, while enjoying family-friendly attractions with a lot of history thrown in for good measure. Summer 2020 is the time to do it.

Hop on into our new Ford Ranger as we drive from the eastern Algarve, where we currently live, and let’s hit the road to Montenegro. We’ll stop in Spain for some tapas, wander the historical city of Carcassonne, before stopping in Tuscany for some gelato.

After cruising the canals of Venice, we’ll discover some Roman history in Pula, Croatia before relaxing on the beach. As Game of Thrones fans, no European road trip would be complete without a visit to King’s Landing, aka Dubrovnik. And while we’re there, we’ll hop across the border to Montenegro.

Lakes are the next item on our itinerary, so Plitvice National Park is first up before heading to Lake Bohinj and Bled in Slovenia. The Julian Alps will be the backdrop for this pit stop on our epic journey. And while we’re in Slovenia, let’s meander through the streets of Ljubljana.

While we’ll have visited a few along the way, castles will be the focus for the next half of our trip with stops in Austria, Liechtenstein and Germany including Neuschwanstein and the Black Forest.

And before we make our way home via Salamanca in Spain, we’ll be discovering WWII history in Normandy before wondering in awe at the beauty of the many chateaus in the Loire Valley. You can taste the wine, we’ll be the designated driver!

This Epic 8500km road trip is our most ambitious to date and we’d love you to join us. We are seeking partners for this trip and welcome discussions about collaborations for your country and tourism board.
