It can be hard to find a hotel where your pet is as welcome as you are. But here I have picked out the top 10 pet friendly hotels in the UK where your dog isn't just allowed, but positively pampered. Nothing is too much for four-legged guests at these luxury hotels. All are happy to have dogs to stay, while many offer special pet packages including food prepared by the hotel chef, treats, toys, dog beds and bowls, plus advice on the best local dog walks, dog sitting and grooming. Some of the hotels put your dog up for free, while others charge anything from £8-30 per dog, per night.
