

Angeline

41618.00 – The Angeline is a tub chair gracefully handmade with tufted velvet. Careful attention to detail means the chair is superbly finished and satisfies the taste of any 21st century setting. For added comfort, the arms which are immaculately designed and perfectly positioned, slope up and draw even with the chair's low back. Angeline is available in black, black and black.

Features:

- Tufted velvet
- All wood frame
-

Palmerston

Solid wood oak finish with tiled top

41542.00 – The Palmerston combines charm, quality, style and versatility into a beautiful island piece. Built with in the finest hardwoods it's perfectly designed to be an elegant heart of the kitchen. ▪ Drawers on the front and back ▪ A good size wine rack ▪ Towel holders on its sides ▪ knife tidy, allow for a good deal of extra storage. It's as heavy as it looks but will always glide into place on its concealed rollers.

wood type oak top is tile. This is used as an island piece as it has drawers on both sides. the little hole on the side is used for storing knives. The wine "rack" also holds it on both sides, and there are towel "holders" on each side to hold kitchen stuff. It is also on rollers but you cannot really see the wheels; to move it around easily - as it is a really heavy peice Dellis.Figure 141260.00 - this is a huge bookcase / glasscase actually 3 separate pieces when it arrives at your door. it is over 70 inches wide and 90 inches tall.

A stunning low bookcase / shelving / storage unit from our 'EDEN' range, which features a medium finish whilst retaining a traditional rustic feel. Delicately handcrafted from the only the finest carefully selected and graded solid hardwood timbers. The unit adopts a modern design whilst encompassing quality traditional elements, guaranteed to be a talking point and will look stunning in any surrounding. Very much in keeping with the look of today and will really make a statement in your room, you could be the envy of the street!