

Ynyshir Hall Hotel

Wales, UK

There are fewer places in the world more beautiful than Wales, and fewer places to stay in Wales more luxurious than the enchanting Ynyshir Hall. Once a favourite retreat of Queen Victoria, set within stunning Welsh countryside, the beautiful beaches of Borth and Ynyslas just a short drive away and Britain's finest bird reserve, the RSPB Ynys-hir Nature Reserve on its doorstep, Ynyshir Hall is a true jewel in the crown of Wales.

One of the UK's finest boutique foodie hotels and proud holder of a Michelin star, Ynyshir offers delicious Welsh modern cuisine prepared using local ingredients including some locally foraged items and foods from the hotel's own herb & vegetable garden. Why not treat yourself to Ynyshir Hall's wonderful tasting menu, complete with wines specially selected to complement every dish? It is the perfect way to unwind after a busy working week!

Ynyshir Hall is surrounded by the Cambrian Mountains and the views from all parts of the hotel are of nature – you can't see another property, you can't hear traffic noise and on occasions you feel you are in your very own private haven. This is why the hotel was once a favourite hidden retreat of Queen Victoria. From the very first moment you arrive at this little bit of heaven, you are made to feel like a welcome friend. The atmosphere is warm and friendly and the sherry waiting in your room is a perfect way to unwind after your journey.

For the ultimate country break away from city life and to taste your very own slice of heaven in one of the most beautiful parts of the UK, look no further than Ynyshir Hall.
