

ATKIN AND THYME

Desk Revamp with Atkin and Thyme

September is a great time to refresh the home office space and create a tranquil, productive environment that will help refocus the mind.

Stanley Writing Desk - £449

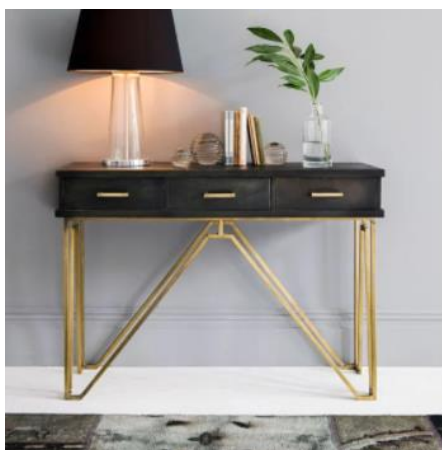

Flute Marble Console Desk - £449

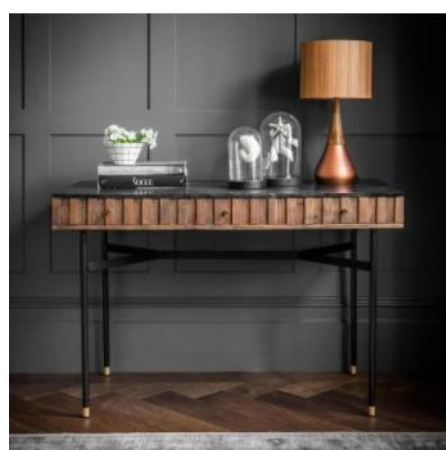

Keiko Dressing Table/Console/Desk - £499

The Stanley Writing Desk brings back a mid-century inspired aesthetic with its grand size and clean profile. With room to write letters the old-fashioned way and for all those high-tech essentials, this wonderful desk is made from the finest mango wood, and comprises plenty of storage. New for AW21, the Flute Marble Console Desk takes its own twist on mid-century with a hint of Scandinavian design. It features gently curved ends, brass clad edging, brass plated handles and black legs with brass caps.

Those who are short on space might consider using a console table over a traditional desk. The Keiko Dressing Table/Console/Desk offers all round everyday use, and is crafted from mango wood and finished with brass-plated bamboo-style legs and handles. When paired with brass or antique chairs and décor, this desk looks both grand and rustic.

Madison Console Table - £499

Berkeley Marble Console Table - £499

Fandango Console Table - £339

The Madison Console Table offers a classic, contemporary scheme. Handcrafted from solid mango wood and carefully stained with a dusky shade of charming charcoal, this console table boasts a subtle antique patina on the handles which is both on-trend and unique. A console table to behold, the Berkeley Marble Console Table has plenty of space for day to day essentials, and would pair perfectly with copper or glass accessories. Made from acacia wood, this console table has finishing touches of powder coated black iron legs with brass detailing and a statement black marble top. The Fandango Console is one of Atkin and Thyme's best sellers with its distinctive white wash mango wood design and luxurious colour contrasts.
