

Greens to be seen in 2022

Nature's neutral, the harmony green brings into the home is undeniable. Bringing the outdoors in is beneficial all year round, and the trend predictions for 2022 are indicating this colour is here to stay.

Homescape's Bower Velvet Sofa Bed in Dark Green would fit effortlessly into contemporary schemes. Upholstered in luxurious velvet and handstitched to the finest detail, this sofa converts into a comfortable bed for overnight guests or weekend catnaps. Team with the Clarence Velvet Footstool with Storage in Velvet Green for extra comfort and a place to store away those throw cushions come night time! Woven from super soft 100% cotton and filled with a warm microfibre filling, the Cotton Quilted Reversible Bedspread Sage Green & Cream is a heavyweight blanket that can be used as a sofa throw or extra bedspread during cold winter months.

The chic Elton Velvet Bar Stool will add a dash of luxury to the kitchen island or introduce some farm house style to the home with the Vintage Style Metal Green Adjustable Tractor Seat Bar Stool.

Looking to take the indoors outdoors? Lay out the Ada Botanical White & Green Outdoor Rug. This reversible design can be used on both sides and easily cleaned with soapy water and a damp cloth. Made from luxurious 100% cotton, the Emerald Green Velvet Cushion Cover is also available in a round design, and comes in an array of sizes to complement many décor styles, and can be used as a scatter cushion both inside and outdoors to brighten up seating areas.
