

Spherical Showstoppers

Curved shapes inherently add softness to interior schemes, but when combined with metallics and texture spherical shapes can deliver an interesting architectural edge.

Undulating bases and opal white globes will cast a gentler hue while still creating intrigue and complementing the settings around them. Eye-catching woven copper bands and hand-blown glass shades make an impact in their own right.

Those looking for something extraordinary should consider the Serafina I Light Pendant Brushed Chrome, a circular pendant constructed of hundreds of tubes creating a fascinating, almost animated effect.
