As the warmth of the Indian summer rolls into the transitioning months, so do the colours. This seasons must haves for interior design focuses on deep reds, burnt oranges and the contrasting colours of rich blues and golds, all of which represent warmth and positivity for the mind.

The Ascot Leather Bar Stool in Mustard Gold from Homescapes makes for the perfect accessory for the kitchen island to create an additional social zone or seating area. With a sleek black metal frame that is inspired by retro and industrial styles, this stool is an affordable yet chic way of upgrading the kitchen. For the bohemian, this traditional Red and Multi-Colour Chindi Design Circular Bean Filled Pouffe is inspired by handwoven Asian patterns, and provides style and substance to the living room, dressing room or bedroom. The contrasting tones of the Blue and Gold Jacquard Curtains with Modern Striped Design captures the newest AW21 hue trends, and adds a classical aesthetic to interior schemes. These curtains are fully lined, with gold accents that add sophistication to the bedroom, living area, study or guest room and also come available in matching curtain tie backs. The artificial plant collection by Homescapes has been handcrafted and designed by botanical experts, ensuring true authenticity, which is why the Artificial Hanging Basket Ivy Plant in Pot is ideal for adding finishing touches to the autumnal inspired haven.
